Henry Stewart to stage Self-Invested Pensions Masterclass for intermediaries

4 November 2005: In preparation for A-day, Henry Stewart Conference Studies is to stage a Self-Invested Pensions Masterclass on Tuesday, 29 November 2005 at the Radisson Portman Hotel, London W1. The Masterclass is to be chaired by John Moret, Director of Sales and Marketing for Suffolk Life - one of the UK's leading providers and administrators of SIPPs.

The Masterclass will include an array of expert speakers who will consider the issues arising for individual pension savers in the run-up to and post A-day and will also examine the various annuity and alternative options available. Particular attention will be paid to the likely impact for the SSAS and SIPP markets post A-day looking in particular at legal structures, documentation and regulation.

Elizabeth Thomas, organiser for the Henry Stewart Masterclass said: "This Masterclass follows our extremely successful Henry Stewart "Small Self Administered Schemes" and "Self Invested Personal Pensions" conferences. It has been designed to provide an in-depth technical assessment of the implications of the Finance Acts 2004 and 2005 as supplemented by recent draft regulations and Guidance notes. We look forward to welcoming all delegates and expert speakers on the day, which we hope will be a very useful source of information for all attendees."

John Moret, Chairman of the Masterclass and often referred to as Mr SIPP said: "The annual Henry Stewart conferences on SIPPs and SSASs are firmly established in the pensions conference timetable. This new technical Masterclass comes at a crucial time in the run-up to A-day. Looking at the content and the range of speakers I am confident that everyone will find the day both useful and stimulating. It ought to be a must for organisations involved with SIPPs or SSASs."
